Rebels Split Weekend Games With Stettler

Last Saturday night's game started fast with good checking and hard skating, with Drayton Valley winning 6-3. The Rebels drew a minor penalty at 8:32 and had little trouble containing Stettler in their own end even though they were one man short. The first Rebel goal was scored by Garding and Born getting the assist. Stettler's passing attack left much to be desired and any rush was easily broken up by the Rebel defence. Garding scored his second goal of the period from Solness and Hemmingway, and left Drayton Valley with a 2-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The second period started off a little slower with Stettler having trouble putting an offence together. Nevertheless the Imperials scored their first goal while playing one man short at 15:30. Rebels came back with a goal at 6:25 by Novacel from Colbert in a good show of puck control around the Stettler net. The Rebels scored again on an alert play by Ness assisted by Davie. At 18:21 Hemmingway popped in an unassisted goal in a scene all too familiar, a cluttered Stettler net. The second period scoring ended with a goal by Rawlusky of Stettler in a fine show of experience and good skating.

The third period started with some real determined play by Stettler which paid off at 1:50 on a goal by Rawlusky. The plays then moved from one end to the other until Colbert picked up a Novacel pass at the blue line and drove in to score the final goal of the game.

The three stars of the first game were Garding of the Rebels, Rawlusky (Stettler) and Solness (Rebels).

Sunday's game was for the most part a re-run of Saturday's game with both teams having trouble clearing the puck from their own end. The Rebels took a 1-0 lead on a goal by Al Hopfe at 10:29 on a pass from Davie. Jim Dunn made it 2-0 on a picture goal just 8 seconds later on a pass from Novacel and Dunn tapped it under the goalie's pads. The lone Stettler goal of the period came as a result of a Rebel defensive lapse, and Monaghan scored at 14:28.

The Rebels had a bad second period when Stettler scored 2 unanswered goals. The first by Peam at 6:05 and the second by Monaghan when the Rebels were short-handed at 10:30. In the latter stages of this period the Rebels were 2 men short for a time but held the Imperials to 2 shots on goal.

The third period was a fast but scattered period of hockey, with Stettler taking advantage of every Rebel error. The fourth Stettler goal was scored by Koberinski as a result of a bad defensive play by the Rebels. The fifth Stettler goal was scored by Rosequist at 15:03. At this point the Imperials started to jell and despite the pressure the Rebels put on their goaltender Fystro they held on and scored yet another goal at 18:57 by Rosequist. The final score was 6-2 for Stettler. The three stars of this game were Peam (Stettler) Hopfe of Drayton Valley and LaGore (Stettler). The Drayton Valley Rebels vs Wetaskiwin Colonels Tuesday, December 10th at 8:30.

Former Residents Visit Drayton

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burki of Sangudo who formerly farmed north of Drayton Valley and gave up the farm recently to make way for the lake to be created by the proposed dam on the Pembina, were recent visitors to Drayton Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Burki, Mr. Joe Burki, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burki are now happily relocated on a new farm on the banks of the Pembina near Sangudo. As at their River Isle Ranch here, they are again concentrating on the cattle business.

Reflecting on earlier days, with members of the Western Review staff, Mrs. Burki produced a statement from a Lloydminster cattle buyer dated June 1933 that showed a total price of $93.05 for five animals sold by Mr. Burki. The five calves that sold for less than $20 each ranged between 710 and 860 pounds.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Toward One World

Canadian attitudes toward non-white races still leave much to be desired. There are Negroes, Indians and Eskimos in Canada who still do not enjoy the full privileges of other citizens of Canada.

But at least Canada makes an attempt to treat men and women of all races equally, and to show the world that the color of a person's skin does not necessarily count against him when applying for entry to the country.

This then is a step in the right direction, because there are still several wealthy nations in the world that discriminate against Asians, Africans and other non-European races.

The best-known one, of course, of South Africa. Apartheid, or the separation of black and white into distinct groups, is an evil doctrine that will not stand the test of time.

Less publicity is given to Australia which continues to bar most colored migrants. The tragedy is that some Australian politicians even boast about Canberra's policy. Australian Immigration Minister William Snedden says he can see no benefit at all for Australia if the nation creates a multi-racial society.

"We should avoid people who are not socio-economically and culturally the same as we are," he argues. As mankind moves toward one world, painfully perhaps but with determination, the concept of a white Australian fortress in Asia is outdated.

Multi-racial societies are thriving in many nations, despite, ever-present tensions that only the passage of time will cure. To reject the great vision of a multi-racial world is to deny the realities of a shrinking global community, drawn closer together by better communications and transport, and by common aims and ideals.

Christmas Fire Care

Here's advice from the Joint Fire Prevention Publicity Committee of Canada:

- Your evergreen Christmas tree and its decorations are potential fire hazards. They head the list of a sensible family's preparation for a happy holiday.
- Your tree should be fresh. A dry tree readily sheds its needles. Keep your tree outdoors until you are ready to decorate. Indoors, keep the tree standing in water, after cutting off at least an inch from the butt. Replenish the water daily.
- Your electric lighting strings should be checked for frayed cords or short circuits. Buy only CSA approved sets. Use non-flammable decorations. Disconnect the lights when leaving home or going to bed. Candles, of course, constitute added hazards.
- Keep matches out of the reach of little hands.
- Clear wrappings away from the base of the tree as soon as the gifts are opened.
- Set the tree away from the fireplace. Do not block access to exits.
- Have plenty of large ash trays for the guests who smoke.
- Never leave small children alone or unattended in the home.
- Cookstove fires from oils or grease are an emergency. Smother flames... a rug... baking soda... never water. If this doesn't do the job, get everybody out and call the Fire Department.

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

BY REV. R. E. KEMP

The sickening sound of metal tearing and ripping to shreds was followed quickly by screams of terror and pain. In a matter of seconds the silence of that cold, blustery December night that had been so violently shattered, returned. The only sound to be heard was the soft wimper of a little girl crying "Mommy, Mommy", just above the moaning of the wind.

This tragic accident took place about forty miles west of Winnipeg on the Trans-Canada Highway. It was just about this time of month, during the Christmas season of 1961.

The occupants of the car containing no dead, and no seriously injured people, had been drinking. The driver was hurtling down the highway on the wrong side of the road; Alcohol had so befuddled his brain that he did not realize it!

The ensuing head-on collision involved two families. One family ended up with four youngsters sorrowfully missing a mother; a father; and a baby sister. The other family to this day lives with a horrible memory that is not easily shaken. Perhaps the man responsible has asked himself many times, "Why did I have to drink and then drive?".

"Why did it have to happen?" How awful it must be to be tormented with remorse and regret over such a thing!

What about you, mister? What about you, lady? Will you be responsible for the death of somebody's little boy or girl? Will you have the blood of some child's parents on your hands because you insist that you CAN DRINK AND DRIVE?

In this particular case, the writer knows that those who were almost instantly taken out of the land of the living that December day, were prepared to meet their Maker. The Bible tells us that "...it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement." (Hebrews 9:27) This husband and wife had heard, understood and accepted the Word of God where Jesus explains, "I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved..." (John 10:9).

What about you, friend? If you know that there are things in your life that are wrong and sinful, will you not confess your sins to Jesus? He loves you! Turn from your sins and invite Jesus into your heart and life. He said in John 6:37, "...Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out."

Diversified Crops Could Be Canada's Answer

Yes, we are in a wheat crisis with no clear-cut solution in sight. But let's not push the panic button and rush into something we may regret later, says the head of Alberta's Field Crops Branch O. G. Bratvold.

Referring specifically to high-yielding, low quality dwarf wheat varieties, he points out that Canada has established a world-wide reputation for the reliable quality of her wheat and has done well on the export market. We should not jeopardize or abandon this reputation without very careful consideration, he warns. He claims that the implication that there is no longer a demand for high quality wheat is without foundation.

The contention that Canada would find more markets and sell more wheat if we produced a lower quality wheat is another assumption that is not substantiated. It ignores, says Mr. Bratvold, the fact that Canada now produces a wide range of grades including low quality grades, which are not presently experiencing a brisk demand on the export market.

Canadian authorities have agreed that licensing of low quality wheats can be permitted providing that the grain is easily distinguishable from our present high quality wheats so that they can be identified and kept separate in trade channels. Plant breeders now have four different color characteristics which can be bred into wheat.

A further complication that has been over-looked by those who advocate that we should grow high yielding dwarf wheat varieties is that there is no reason why such warm-climate countries as Pakistan and India should not become self-sufficient in their production within the next decade. Mexico has already achieved this situation so why not other countries too? In which case the anticipated huge markets for cheap wheat are unlikely to ever become a reality!

The present wheat situation, says Mr. Bratvold, is not due to Canada's preoccupation with high-quality wheat as some would have us believe. It has resulted from the tremendous changes that are taking place in the world wheat market. Many of the world's wheat importers are changing their diet habits as a result of becoming more affluent. The trend in such areas is away from bread towards animal proteins such as milk, meat and egg and also fruits and vegetables. Increased wheat production in countries that used to be deficient in this commodity is another factor. High-yielding adapted varieties have helped to bring about this situation.

The net result, says Mr. Bratvold, is a surplus of wheat in trading channels throughout the world. The production of more wheat in Canada, even at lower prices, is not the final answer. The fact that Canada competes on the world market against countries which heavily subsidize agricultural products, including wheat, further complicates an already complex picture.

All this adds up to the fact that although it may be desirable from the producer's point of view to produce more bushels of wheat per acre, it is not the complete remedy for the western farmer's dilemma!

Mr. Bratvold feels that a satisfactory answer to the grim, long-range outlook for Canadian wheat could lie in the diversification of crops. What these crops would be or where they would be marketed is still an unknown quantity, but it seems that we have to get away from over-dependence on wheat, he says.

Mr. A.W.N. Erickson, Supervisor of Feeder Associations of the Alberta Department of Agriculture will be present to speak on beef feed lot operations. He is expected to deal with general aspects of feed lots such as their place in the farming business and economics rather than specific topics such as nutrition.

The meeting will take the form of a dinner session in the Cadium Room at 7:00 p.m.

Tickets are available this week from Big Country Machinery, Double S Farm Supplies, Mickey's Equipment, U.F.A. Co-op and Sekura Auctions. Anyone interested should obtain tickets early.

Disappointing Prices at Royal Winter Fair

The Grand Champion market steer exhibited by Keith Hall of Ayr, Ontario sold to Dominion Stores for three dollars and twenty five cents a pound at the Toronto Royal Winter Fair. This is seven dollars less per pound than last year's Grand Champion sold for. All other steers also brought less money than last year.

Last year the Reserve Grand Champion brought two dollars a pound. This year the entry of Justamere Farms of Lloydminster brought sixty eight cents. Sixty eight cents was managed only because a small boy kept raising his bid with no opposition after forty cents had been reached. The boy's father managed to intercept the youngster and stop him at sixty eight cents - the steer was donated to a local charitable organization.

The average price for all steers with the exception of the champions, was close to thirty one cents a pound. This is down from last year's thirty four and three quarters. The Toronto Stockyards quote choice steers at 28-29 with sales to 30.20 on Friday. An absence of competitive buyers was noted with only one large supermarket chain and only one of the three large cross Canada packing plants bidding. Several smaller Ontario meat packers as well as a handful of Western Canadian based firms were purchasing the four hundred offerings.

Top price for an Albertan steer was thirty seven cents for Fred Noad's Champion crossbred steer. Mr. Noad, who lives near Olds, also received 32.75 for the Reserve Champion crossbred and 32.50 for the Reserve Champion Angus steer. Tom Hamilton of Innisfail received 32.50 for his Champion Shorthorn steer. The average price for the eight championship winners was 73.40.

Alberta exhibitors were very disappointed in the selling price of their animals which averaged just over thirty cents.

SUMMARY

Receipts were sharply lower this week on the Edmonton Public Stockyards due to unusually mild weather. Offerings were mostly stock calves and cows with very few top quality butcher steers or heifers on offer. Trade was active on all classes of replacement cattle and calves to moderate on butcher steers and heifers as buyers were very selective as to slaughter weights. Butcher steers were mostly of good to medium quality at steady prices while the odd strictly choice handy weight topped 26.25. Choice handy weight heifers were also scarce throughout the week. Butcher heifer sales were mainly of medium to good quality with choice handy weights topping 25 early in the week, with the odd sale to 25.10 at mid-week. Butcher cows opened under a firmer undertone with all grades 25 to 50 higher. Good cows were generally scarce selling at a practical top of 16, with the odd extreme good to 16.50. Bulls were about 50 lower for the week. Veal calves were generally scarce throughout but were selling on a firm basis in closing trade. Good to choice butcher calves opened 25 to 50 higher and sold steady. Replacement cattle for feeding were in good demand at firm prices with a few good 650 lb. steers bringing 28.50 cwt. Stock steer calves were in good supply and moving readily at steady prices. Stock heifer calves gained some strength and were 25 to 50 higher with several lots at 25.25. One Day's Pay

The Moderator of the United Church of Canada, Dr. Robert B. McClure - the first layman ever to be head of the Church - has written a personal letter to all families of the Church asking that they seriously consider giving one day's pay, over and above their routine givings, to the world's refugee areas. The need is urgent and our people's response to this cause may well be the most important thing for the future we can do.

All our people will receive within the next few days, the Moderator's letter with special envelope plus a brochure on The Hungry.

Only one other Church has given a day's pay over and above the regular givings, for this worthy cause and that was the Methodist Church in England in 1967. We encompass the Methodist tradition within the United Church of Canada. Can we in affluent Canada do less? May God bless you as you give in this Holy Season of Advent.

 Alberta.

Christmas time is gift giving time and no one enjoys this time of year more than children. All of us, I am sure, remember laying awake many a night trying to guess what was inside the brightly coloured packages under the tree and wondering if Santa was really going to fulfill our wishes.

The "Canadian Consumer", the magazine published by the Consumer's Assoc. of Canada, has some pointers to keep in mind when selecting gifts for children. A list of the toys recommended by the Canadian Toy Testing Council is included in the November-December, 1968, edition.

Toy Council Recommendations: Arts & Crafts: Kits should develop skill and creativity. Clear instruction, suitable packaging, adequate materials and tools, and an attractive finished product are important.

Co-ordination & Construction: Look for ease of assembly, balance, sturdiness, suitable size and number of parts, versatility, smooth finish and non-brittle materials. Clockwork toys limit the play value. Toddler wooden toys should be screwed and/or glued, not nailed.

Costumes: Be careful to buy non-flammable, roomy costumes that show up in the dark and do not restrict vision.

Dolls & Doll Play: Look for large fully washable dolls for toddlers with short or moulded hair and pliable limbs-not too stiff. Attractive, more fashionable, washable clothing and longer hair for over five years and fashion dolls for over seven.

Doll Accessories: Doll equipment should be in scale with the child's other play equipment, strong, sturdy, well balanced. Avoid sharp edges and flimsy materials.

Games & Puzzles: These should teach co-operative play, increase knowledge, improve co-ordination, stimulate imagination, improve memory. Look for clear instructions, sturdy container, well-functioning parts

Suit the game to the age of the child.
 Infant & Plush Toys: Removable parts should be too large to swallow or inhale. Look for toys which help develop the baby's senses of sight sound, touch and speech. Look for clear, bright colors, washability, avoid poorly attached bells, squeakers or eyes, long strings, poor stitching, brittle plastic or inflammable toys. Wired limbs or ears can be dangerous.
 Science Toys: These should foster new interests. Avoid discouragement by not buying equipment that is too small to work properly. Clear instructions are important as well as sufficient materials. Equipment should be of adequate quality and function to ensure success. Remember, failure is discouraging.
 Sporting Toys: Look for outdoor equipment that does not rust, is smoothly finished, sturdy and well-balanced. Sporting toys should be selected with the child's level of skill, strength and co-ordination in mind.
 Teaching Aids: These should allow scope for creativity, using intelligence and imagination and developing a desire for new experiences. The end result should not be too obvious in advance.
 Wheel Toys: Avoid toys that come apart unintentionally. Look for sturdiness, balance, free-running mechanisms, good design, finish and appearance, well-finished edges. Poorly attached wheels. Exposed axles and dangerous projections are a hazard.

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS. EDITH DEBY

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parenteau are back in Drayton Valley after a year spent in Swan Hills and Edmonton. Nice to have you back, folks.

Our deepest sympathy is with Lester Miller's family in their bereavement.

Little Dean Manchester is in the local hospital with rheumatic fever. Dean is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Jonzon.

Dutch Van Dorp is a young man of many and varied accomplishments. He is, or has been at one time, a gardener, a farmer, a service station operator, an oil well driller, a school bus driver and an indoor finisher as the new premises of Dutch and Edith's Beauty Salon testify.

Mr. and Mrs. M.M. Hamilton of Alcomdale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Beckett for four days on the weekend. The Hamiltons who lived in the Violet Grove District for many years, planned their trip to Drayton Valley to coincide with the Anglicans Bazaar and Supper for which they knew it would be a good place to see old friends. The Hamiltons very much enjoyed a trip to California this year and next spring, if all be well, they will go to Toronto, for they have never seen a hockey game in the Maple Leaf Gardens and it is a long time ambition. Good luck and happy travelling, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

Dr. Maclure is away this week taking a course in anaesthetics at Foothills Hospital in Calgary.

Mrs. Joesting has almost made up her mind to fly to Germany this coming year to visit her family in Dortmund. As yet Mr. Joesting has not been persuaded that he wants to go, but here is all winter for him to allow himself to be persuaded.

Mrs. Frank Watson of Mission, B.C. came to attend funeral services for her uncle, the late Lester Miller, and will see as many members of her family as time allows before returning to her home.

The Drayton Valley's Women's

Institute Girls' Club, the Drayton Valley Hummingbirds, announce that Mrs. Shirley Morrill has won the set of dishes that the club raffled. Mrs. Olga Brown and Mrs. Mary Hemmingway are the club leaders. Both leaders and club members would like to thank all those who supported the project by buying tickets.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins of Co-dette, Saskatchewan visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Campbell on the weekend. The Perkins are on their way to the coast for the winter.

Mrs. Clyde Brown has just returned from a week long visit with her daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Pelletier, in Vancouver. Mrs. Brown kidnapped her small granddaughter, Kim, and brought her home with her.

It is just eighteen months since Garry Janzen started work at the Treasury Branch in Drayton Valley. Since then he has had two transfers, one to Lloydminster and another to Edson, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Janzen, have just learned that another transfer is pending, and hope it doesn't come through before Christmas if it is some place at a distance.

Library News

Our long awaited copy of Gerald Durrell's book "Rosy is my Relative" has arrived. This is this popular author's first work of fiction. Durrell is a world traveler and has brought his findings about animals of many different countries to us in such books as "Two in the Bush" and "The Overloaded Ark" Note: the first mentioned we have - the other we don't.

The books of Phyllis Whitney are too well known to require much mention here. They seem to be particularly popular with women and mature teen-agers. "Hunter's Green" is Whitney's new book recently published and just available. Ask about it at the desk in your library.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT THOMPSON

Couple Honored On 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Thompson of Drayton Valley were honored at a family gathering on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary on November 27th.

Mr. Thompson of Rowles County, Missouri, and the former Arly E. Caldwell of Goose Creek Island, Idaho were married in Cardston, Alberta in 1908.

They took up ranching in the Mountain View area and remained there for 47 years. They moved to Drayton Valley in May of 1955 where Mr. Thompson went to work for Flint Construction. He retired in 1966.

The couple have three sons, Oaklie of Mountain View, Trevor of Union, Oregon, and Vaughn of Drayton Valley. A fourth son, Arron passed away in 1961. They also have 30 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren.

A family supper was held to observe the occasion at the home of their son Vaughn followed by open house at the home of their grandson Barry Thompson. Large numbers of friends and relatives called to wish them well during the evening. A special guest of the evening was Mr. Thompson's sister who flew here from Nebraska to celebrate with them.

Messages of congratulations were received from Queen Elizabeth, Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, the Secretary of State, Lieutenant Governor Grant MacEwan, Premier E.C. Manning, M.P. Allan Sulatycky, and Mayor Henry Shimbashi of Drayton Valley. Many beautiful bouquets of flowers, gifts and cards were received on the memorable occasion.

MRS. WOOD - WRITES

Former M.L.A., Mrs. C. R. Wood Returns From Holiday Travels

The Western Review,
Drayton Valley, Alberta

Dear Mr. Smith:

Enclosed please find the sum of three dollars as renewal of my subscription to 'The Western Review'. I am sorry to be so late in getting it to you, but I have been away for nearly three months. I was pleased to see that you had continued sending your paper to me and since arriving home, I have enjoyed keeping up with activities in Drayton Valley and District through its columns.

In my travels I visited the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto for four days, visited in Detroit and its highlight of visiting the famous Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. A week spent in Jasper, Michigan, visiting a friend, was like a visit to the homes of the 1800's. Her home was an original 110 year old home with much of the original furniture in it.

Ten enjoyable days were spent attending the Convention of the Associated Country Women of the World with 2500 women from 46 countries. It was interesting to talk with and hear women from various countries and learn of their work.

After the Convention I went with 104 other women from 26 countries on a bus tour through Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Washington D.C., ending up with two days sight-seeing in New York City.

From there, I flew to Kansas City and on to San Antonio, Texas to HemisFair 68. Texas is a big state and there are a lot of big things there so I was anxious to see if its World Fair could equal or surpass Expo 67. Well, it didn't. In fact even Texans who had visited Expo admitted that, and many people said the State Fair was better than HemisFair 68. I had expected to see exhibits by 15 or 20 of the states. To my disappointment only two states, Texas and Arkansas had pavilions. They were excellent exhibits and it was too bad that more states did not exhibit.

From there I went to Oklahoma City and places around it to visit relatives. On October 2nd, I was in Marlowe when the temperature was 93 above. There and Norman were the hottest spots in the United States that day. That night by 4 a.m. the temperature had dropped to 43 above - some change and believe me we noticed it, having to get some extra bedding to get warm. I fully expected snow the next day, but I was told "As the famous Oklahomaan Will Rogers used to say, if you don't like the Oklahoma weather, stay until tomorrow. it will change."

From Oklahoma I went to St. Joseph, Missouri and spent four weeks with my relatives, then off to Denver and Calgary and home. It was an exciting time to be in the United States during the elections. T.V. programs filled the air and coffee parties and meetings kept the voter aware that an election was on. It was a delightful holiday for me and I saw so many interesting places and met so many wonderful people, but it is good to be back in good old Stony Plain.

Thanks for keeping "The Western Review" coming and best wishes to you and Mrs. Smith.
Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Cornelia R. Wood

... a government match-maker?

Unlike most match-makers, Kay Ritchie's clients are not prospective bride and groom but parents and child. She is one of the 350 social workers who match prospective parents with adoptable children under the care of the Child Welfare Branch, Alberta Department of Welfare. In so doing, Kay and her colleagues not only make sure that the youngster is acceptable to the adopters, but also that that couple is suitable for the child. In addition to processing hundreds of adoptions each year, the Child Welfare Branch also offers protection to children against neglect or abuse, locates foster homes for wards of the crown, and supervises institutions which house those children who have not found a permanent or foster home.

Terry McAfee has a unique product; the industrial potential of Alberta, which he promotes through the pages of the "Alberta Opportunities Bulletin". This publication informs businessmen all over the world of distributing and manufacturing openings in our province. The Bulletin is one of the many tools used by the Industrial Development Branch of the Alberta Department of Industry and Tourism to encourage growth in Alberta's primary and secondary industries. The Branch also assists businessmen in measuring the value of the province's potential by providing information on markets, industrial location factors, raw materials and financing. Key areas outside Alberta are given on-the-spot assistance through Industrial Development offices in Montreal and Los Angeles.

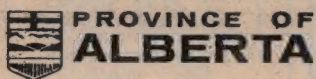

... a "look-out man" in skirts?

Pert and attractive Carmen Crista Elliott has the distinction of being Alberta's first girl "Lookout Man"... the official title given to her job as forest fire spotter for the Forestry Branch, Alberta Department of Lands and Forests. Carmen, along with 145 male fire spotters, is employed to detect and report forest fires as they break out in any of Alberta's 11 forests. She and her colleagues man fibre-glass booths atop lookout towers strategically located throughout the 96 million acres of forests in the province. Each of these booths is equipped to pinpoint the location of a fire outbreak on maps and photographs, and to radio the information back to the District Forest Officer. Because of alert and conscientious work by Alberta's lookout men, the average annual loss from forest fires has been reduced considerably.

have you ever met...

... a psychologist who is an art critic?

Psychologist Sonia Masciuch lauds the earnest artistic efforts of a young patient, a small but important aspect of the rehabilitation of emotionally disturbed children, at the Edmonton Guidance Clinic. The Department of Health, through the Division of Mental Health, maintains such clinics in Calgary, Red Deer and Lethbridge, plus sub-offices in Grande Prairie and Medicine Hat and regular travelling clinics serving rural and northern areas. Three allied professional groups work together in these clinics. Child Psychiatrists, Social Workers and clinical Psychologists make a complete service of diagnosis, consultation and treatment available in each centre. This is a free service provided to children of all ages and young people up to twenty years of age who are still in school or under direct parental supervision.

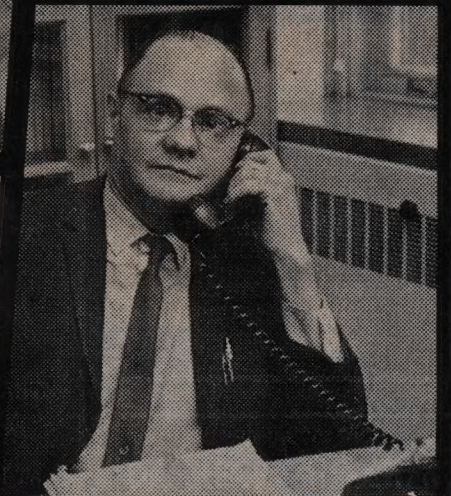

... a man who plays "father" to 200 boys?

The 200 occupants of the men's residence at the Alberta Agricultural and Vocational College in Olds look to Dean of Residence R. P. Warrington for many things. He listens to their troubles, dispenses advice and counsel, provides a link between student body and faculty, and, in general, maintains harmony amongst those students "living in". Dean Warrington and his counterparts at the other two Colleges, in Vermilion and Fairview, are essential factors in a service which works to assure the future of Agriculture in Alberta. Operated by the Extension Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture, The Agriculture and Vocational Colleges provide all young Albertans with the opportunity to learn the skills and knowledge required for a career in farming or related occupations, as well as courses in business and high school academic subjects.

Clarence Kellner is always ready to extend a helping hand to students in financial need. As Secretary of the Students' Assistance Board, Alberta Department of Education, he assists in providing funds to help qualifying students pay for their higher education. Because of revisions to the Students' Assistance Act, which is administered by the Board, financial help is available to more students than ever before. Now, all students from high school to post graduate studies, who achieve passing averages, may be eligible for annual grants up to $400 and low-cost provincial loans of up to $1,500 per year. Repayment of loans need not start until one year after the student graduates. The Students' Assistance Board also administers The Canada Student Loans Plan and the granting of government scholarships, bursaries and prizes.

Harlem Aces to Play Warriors Here

The touring Negro laughmakers the Harlem Aces, are travelling again this season to entertain the fans with their skill in basketball. The team will play here at Frank Maddock High School on Friday, December 6th, 8:00 p.m.

The hilarious "Aces" are billed as the funniest basketball team in America. The Aces are a combine of hoop stars who tour the country making people laugh.

When some of the names of laughmakers are mentioned, hoop fans get ready for an evening of entertainment. The fans come out to see a fancy exhibition of razzle-dazzle, ball handling, intricate routines, both planned and impromptu comedy and all sorts of shenanigans.

The Aces never try to run a huge score against opponents. It has been their policy to keep the game even devoting much of their time to comedy stuff and ball handling routines. There are times naturally when the Aces have to extend themselves. If the home team is exceptionally strong or gets hot the Aces have a ball game on their hands. Then you see some real action as well as comedy.

The Aces, while not as famous as their counterpart, the Harlem Globe Trotters are a talented band of fun-makers who can turn on the steam or tickle the fancy of the most staid fan, all within minutes with their dribble, passing and shooting.

Monro "Rip" Collins:

The Aces have defeated some of the greatest teams in basketball throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico. And you can be sure of a show of dribbling, passing and shooting that you will long remember.

Remembrance Service Held at Evansburg

The 1968 Remembrance Day was observed in Evansburg, with a large crowd gathered at the High School Auditorium.

The parade was led by the R.C.M.P., and was in command of Zone Commander, Carl Bjornstad. The Legion, Auxilliary, Elks, Royal Purple, Cubs and Scouts with all their colors, formed in front of the Legion Hall, and marched to the auditorium.

The colors were marched in and wreaths were laid by: Corporal Anderson, R.C.M.P.; Fred Croft, Royal Canadian Legion; Mrs. M. Peterson, Ladies Auxilliary; Tom Mitchell, Entiwstle Elks, The Sergeant at Arms in charge of colors was G. Pherson.

The last post, played by Gary Lorenz, was followed by the two-minute silence in respect of fallen comrades. This was followed by Reveille. The service was conducted by Rev. Ingram. The organ was played by Mrs. Stella Lorenz. A lunch was served by the Ladies Auxilliary after the service.

At this time a group of Veterans laid wreaths in the Field of Honour at the Evansburg Cemetery. A free show was held in the afternoon.

An enjoyable social was held in the Legion Hall, with a good turnout. Music was by the Ohl Orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the Citizen of the Year Award.

Washington, D.C. - Oldtimers in the U.S. Wildlife Service still Chuckle about this one:

The metal tags for banding birds at on time read; "Wash, Biol. Surv.," indicating Washington Biological Survey. It was changed to U.S. Wildlife Service after receipt of a letter from a backwoods type in Kansas who said: Dear Sirs: Yesterday I shot one of your pet crows. I followed the receipt on its leg. I washed it, boiled it, and served it. It tasted terrible. I wish you would stop trying to fool people."

A husband came home from work one day to find his house in a mess. "What happened?" he exclaimed to his wife.

"You're always wondering what I do all day," she said, "Well here it is, I didn't do it."

MR. DAVE CHOW

New Restaurant Operating Now

Dave's Restaurant opened for business on November 14th in renovated premises formerly operated as the Jade Cafe.

Dave Chow, owner of the restaurant has a lengthy history in the Drayton Valley cafe business. Mr. Chow moved here in 1954 and built the building presently occupied by the cafe in 1955.

The cafe has operated under different names during the years since then when it opened as the Pembina Gardens, it later became the Club then the Jade before Mr. Chow reopened last month as Dave's.

Many changes were made to improve the interior of the cafe for its opening on November 14th.

Mr. Chow was a member of Town Council from 1957 to 1959. In 1960 he moved to Vancouver for a short time before returning to Alberta.

A girl waiting for a bus was crying, so a young man came over and tried to comfort her. He put his arm around her and asked, "Isn't there anything I can do to make you stop crying?"

"I'm afraid not," she sobbed. "It's hay fever. But keep trying anyway."

Mr. Motorist: Please watch for children; especially if they are driving.

Pharmacist Addresses Meeting of Nurses

On November 13th, eight members of the Drayton Valley Nurses Chapter had the pleasure hearing Mr. H. Pickup speak on some of the drug interactions that can occur when the "administration of two or more drugs is markedly different from the sum total of those drugs if given singly." "Drug interactions may arise from either the alteration of, absorption, distribution, biotransformation, or excretion of one drug by another, or from their combined action or effects."

Those present were most appreciative of the copies of the chart prepared by our speaker after much time and research. This "Drug Interaction" chart as prepared is most interesting if not a little frightening when one realizes the combination of prescription medicines, along with patent preparations that people will combine, not always to the knowledge of their family physician, who should be aware of all preparations their patient is on, be it off the drug store shelf or if prescribed by another doctor.

As in other years our December meeting will be in the form of a Christmas gathering with some business included. This year it will be held on Wednesday, December 11th at the home of Mrs. Fred (B) Schoenroth at 4712-48 Street.

CUB AND SCOUT NOTES

There is very little in the way of news this month, we hope to have more next month. We omitted the name of Mr. Olin Atkinson from the list of assistant Scoutmasters last month. Mr. Atkinson has been helping with scouts since the beginning of this season.

There are 109 boys enrolled in Cubs and Scouts this year. Cubs from "A" and "B" Packs are reminded to be at the Scout Hall by 9:45 a.m. on Saturday, December 7th for the Peanut Drive.

The Cubmaster from "C" Pack reports that a total of 20 badges, 3 green stars, and 2 black stars have been earned by that pack since September. Also they were part of the Remembrance Day parade, and took part in the last bottle drive.

The Alder Flats Cubs and Scouts have been challenged to a hockey game on December 28th, and we are now waiting to hear from them before any further arrangements are made. Cubs from "A" Pack had a skating and weiner roast party on Sunday, December 1st.

We challenge the time and labor...

...you put into handling hay

With Massey-Ferguson's MF 22 Bale Throwing Machine you save time, save handling costs in the field, and it costs less to maintain. (No stops for daily greasing.) New optional hydraulic steering control lets you load bales right where you want them. Let us show you how this money-saver can handle your hay crop with more speed and dependability. Dollar for dollar, you won't find a more efficient bale thrower than the MF 22.

Recreation Round-Up

by Mike Gormley

After two weeks of operation the local Minor Hockey picture looks bright for the 1968-69 season. There are a couple of instances where some equalization moves may be necessary in order to balance the teams involved, however, across the board all teams seem to be potentially equal to their opponents.

At this time, so early in a long season it is rather difficult to assess the true strength or weakness of any team. We have just barely started in on a five month schedule and if a team at any level has potential the margin for improvement over this five month period is fantastic. All teams in every category of the Drayton Valley Minor Hockey program have an abundance of potential and the success of each and every team depends on the initiative, the desire, the attitude and the spirit of the players on that team. If by chance a team is found to be away out of the pack and does not have a hope, the necessary adjustments will be made to bring that team within the realm of its competition. On the other hand stronger teams must be prepared to share their strength if this is necessary to equalize league competition. It is no good to have one team winning each and every game by a fantastic score and another team humiliated time after time. On the other hand players at all levels must help themselves to their share of victories on the ice. They must listen to their coach, develop a strong and determined team spirit and be ready to play their hardest at all times.

The Minor Hockey players in Drayton Valley are most fortunate in that they have excellent leadership in this game of hockey. All levels are coached by very dedicated and very qualified men. These men have a sound knowledge and deep interest in the game of hockey and are anxious to pass this knowledge and interest along to youngsters who are enthusiastic and want to learn to play Canada's National Game.

We are off and running in this 1968-69 hockey season. We look for a very successful season at every level. Problems will arise from time to time but they should not interrupt the overall success of the program and the season. We have the program fully organized and in operation, the best of leadership is available now success depends a great, great deal on the individual player. He must do his share and play the game the way it is supposed to be played. He must play it hard and play it clean, turn in a super effort in every game and be an exemplary sportsman win or lose

Ken Porter had been hospitalized for more than a week due to injuries received when he fell and his leg became tangled with the cows leg while he was loading calves. He hopes to be home on Thursday.

Warriors Defeat Onoway Team

It was the season's opener for the local FMHS Warriors basketball team but to the large crowd on hand it looked more like a mid-season contest. The Onoway community was entertained with an exciting and fast moving contest in which the Drayton squad came out on top of by a 56-37 score.

The local Warriors came out quickly to take a commanding lead in the first quarter resulting from the amazing shooting performance of Doug Ibbotson - after that the teams battled evenly throughout the rest of the evening with the Warriors having a slight edge.

The local Warrior coach had a lot of praise for the Onoway team and its potential and sees this club as a team to be reckoned with come regional playoff time.

It was obvious that this year's edition of the Warriors is an extremely hungry and aggressive team with a great deal of individual color. In the Onoway contest the playing and work of Ron Cameron could only be described as brilliant. Larry (Rookie) Mattoon showed his quick adapting to this game and had an excellent last quarter dropping in 8 points with fine outside shooting. Terry Jevne also played a strong game and is a great addition to this year's team.

On the scoreboard Doug (Gunner) Ibbotson hit for 24 points, Keith (Twiggy) Sodergren for 8, Larry (Rookie) Mattoon for 10, Ron Cameron and Stan Oulton for 6 each and Terry Jevne 2.

The Warriors will travel to Seba Beach tonight, (Wednesday, December 4th) for their second exhibition contest. Friday night will play the touring Harlem Aces from New York City at the local high school at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday will take part in the 13th annual Warburg High School tournament playing Calmar at 12:30 in their first game.

Come out and see this year's high school club Friday night as they battle the Harlem Aces a team that features the great former Harlem Globetrotter, Ed Buchanan, a great entertainer and personality.

Mrs. Kennedy has been taking treatments at the Drayton Valley hospital and excepting for being tired, reports she feels not too bad.

Stanley MacDougall took a few days off from his work to go hunting last week and had good results.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mykatuk were visiting in the neighbourhood on Sunday. They have been doing some repairs on their house while Buford Walker is installing their furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Greanya took the day off on Monday and went to Edmonton. Mary Tattersall kept the children for the day.

Zoltan and Norma Petrisko and little boys of Edmonton visited Norma's parents on Sunday.

EVANSBURG NEWS

MRS. M. BRUNER
Correspondent

I lost a day last week. I really don't know how it happened but when I had realized it, the mailing date for news copy had come and gone and I had forgotten to mail in anything. It must have been the shock resulting from visiting six toylands in one afternoon, or having to pay for two pair of shoes, or having to get two pair of glasses. Perhaps it was a combination of all three, but nevertheless the day was lost somewhere.

The District Agricultural Society held its annual awardsnight recently. The trophies were handed to those winners as well as all prize money being paid.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of an engraved silver tray to Mr. Paul Lemishka, winner of the grain field competition sponsored by the Society. This was the first year this competition was sponsored and since there was very much interest in it, it has been decided to continue with it next year. The presentation to Mr. Lemishka was made by Mr. Stan McArthur, a former president of the Society who has since left our district and moved to Spirit River with his family.

Mr. Gylander, who is now in charge of all Agricultural Societies in the Department of Agriculture was a guest for the evening. Members of the directorate board of the Society will meet again for their annual meeting on the second Wednesday of January and will then plan their activities for the next annual fair.

The ladies of the UCW would like to thank everyone who supported their tea and bazaar which they held recently.

The United Church services

next will be at 2:30 on December 8th and Christmas service will be held on December 22nd at 2:30.

Congratulations, (belatedly) go out to Mr. and Mrs. Jensen on their recent marriage which took place on the last long weekend.

Another of the Evansburg High School teaching staff to receive a Bachelor of Education degree at the University of Alberta's fall convocation was High School principal, Mr. J. Keast. Mr. Keast received his education, including his teacher training, in England.

During World War II he served in the Royal Navy, part of the time as an instructor to the boy seamen.

He came to Canada 15 years ago and taught in Ontario schools for several years. Mrs. Keast and their three children came to Canada 18 months after Mr. Keast did. During the first few years the family were here, they all obtained their Canadian citizenship papers.

Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Keast came to High Prairie, Alberta, with their family, where Mr. Keast taught for two years before coming to Evansburg. Mrs. Keast is a registered nurse and has been nursing on active duty all along except for the last two years.

They have a family of two boys and two girls. Jude is in grade XII in Evansburg High; Philip is in grade XI and Caroline is in grade IX. Linda attends Evansview School and is in grade II. Mr. Keast obtained his degree by taking his University courses through summer sessions and evening credit classes.

If you go around with a chip on your shoulder it's usually from the block above.
